

CHOICES

An educational program designed to reduce underage disorderly conduct or harassment among offenders, 23 years old and younger, referred primarily by the criminal justice system; community referrals from other sources are also accepted.