

DECISIONS

An educational program designed to reduce drinking, problematic drinking and other drug use among offenders, 23 years old and younger, referred primarily by the criminal justice system, through community referrals from other sources are also accepted.