WHAT IS "DECISIONS"?

DECISIONS is a court- approved ARD program that satisfies legal or school requirements for charges of underage drinking and/or public drunkenness in a meaningful way. It is an educational program in which facilitators instruct, support, and encourage youth and young adults to examine their alcohol/other drug use. The program provides participants with information and resources to avoid further, more serious problems. Additionally, it helps them to identify the behaviors that got them into trouble and assists them to develop useful behavior modifications for the future.

HOW DOES DECISIONS WORK?

Decisions is a 12-hour program typically divided into two, 6-hour Saturday/Sunday sessions or four, 3-hour weeknight sessions. Small groups of 6-15 individuals, ages 23 and under, meet with a facilitator. The program can also be adapted to other formats. The Public Drunkenness component requires an additional three hours of work to be completed independently.

Fee: $170.00 (Underage Drinking)

Fee: $215.00 (Public Drunkenness)

Reschedule Fee: $15.00

WHAT IS "(CHOICES"?)

CHOICES is a court- approved ARD program that satisfies legal or school requirements for charges of disorderly conduct, harassment, or criminal mischief. It follows an interactive journaling format in which facilitators instruct, support, and encourage participants to examine their choices that led to their referral to this behavioral awareness program. The program leads youth and young adults to a better understanding of their individual risk factors as well as the information and resources that will assist them in avoiding more serious problems in the future.

HOW DOES (CHOICES) WORK?

Small groups of 6-10 people, ages 23 and under, meet with a facilitator in four, 3-hour sessions or two, 6-hour weekend sessions. Participants are assigned to age-appropriate classes. The program can also be adapted to other formats.

Fee: $140.00

Reschedule Fee: $15.00

WHAT IS "MAC"?

Marijuana Awareness Class (MAC) is an educational awareness program for youth ages 18 and under. The program uses an interactive journaling approach that allows individuals to gain insights and express their thoughts and feelings around their marijuana use.

HOW DOES MAC WORK?

Small groups of 6-8 people, ages 18 and under, meet with a facilitator for one, 2-hour session.

Fee: $65.00

Reschedule Fee: $15.00
